30. Letter, dated June 20, 2019, with attachments [Copies of Letters from Provincial Veterinary Office], of MR. RAFAEL L. VIDAL, General Manager, WAKAT AND KAATUAN BREEDER FARMS, 01-19 Bonifacio Drive, Malaybalay City, expressing objection to the imposition of veterinary service fees and charges authorized under Provincial Tax Ordinance No. 2013-004R enacted by this August Body, for the reason that, although in Article Five, Section 153 of the Local Government Code of 1991 (LGC) authorizes the LGUs to impose and collect REASONABLE Service Fees and Charges for SERVICES RENDERED, it is noted however that the questioned veterinary fees and charges are based not on services rendered but on number of "layers and livestock" of poultry/swine breeders/raisers, and (which) clearly partake the nature of a TAX based on birds/hogs population to which the province IS NOT authorized to impose pursuant to Section 134 of the LGC, except those provincial impositions specifically enumerated therein such as tax on transfer of real property ownership, tax on printing and publication, franchise tax, sand and gravel tax, professional tax, amusement tax, and annual fixed tax for every delivery truck or van ONLY. Pointing out further that the poultry/swine breeders/raisers under contract with San Miguel Corporation, Bounty Fresh, etc., have their own team of veterinarians and consultants who regularly inspect/supervise/observe whether their exacting rules on sanitation, feeding programs, water intakes, among many are being strictly followed to ensure that their supplied flocks, feeds, medicines, etc., would give them their expected returns on their sizeable investments at the end of the cycle. Requesting this August Body, therefore, for a thorough review of the above-said questioned Tax Ordinance be discussed and deliberated upon, lest the Province will be unnecessarily exposed to possible "illegal exaction" lawsuit, or the like. [Refer to NBFD Item #23 – BM Albarece] (See attachment)

23. Letter, dated June 20, 2019, with attachments [Copies of Letters from Provincial Veterinary Office], of MR. RAFAEL L. VIDAL, General Manager, WAKAT AND KAATUAN BREEDER FARMS, 01-19 Bonifacio Drive, Malaybalay City, expressing objection to the imposition of veterinary service fees and charges authorized under Provincial Tax Ordinance No. 2013-004R enacted by this August Body, for the reason that, although in Article Five, Section 153 of the Local Government Code of 1991 (LGC) authorizes the LGUs to impose and collect REASONABLE Service Fees and Charges for SERVICES RENDERED, it is noted however that the questioned veterinary fees and charges are based not on services rendered but on number of "layers and livestock" of poultry/swine breeders/raisers, and (which) clearly partake the nature of a TAX based on birds/hogs population to which the province IS NOT authorized to impose pursuant to Section 134 of the LGC, except those provincial impositions specifically enumerated therein such as tax on transfer of real property ownership, tax on printing and publication, franchise tax, sand and gravel tax, professional tax, amusement tax, and annual fixed tax for every delivery truck or van ONLY. Pointing out further that the poultry/swine breeders/raisers under contract with San Miguel Corporation, Bounty Fresh, etc., have their own team of veterinarians and consultants who regularly inspect/supervise/observe whether their exacting rules on sanitation, feeding programs, water intakes, among many are being strictly followed to ensure that their supplied flocks, feeds, medicines, etc., would give them their expected returns on their sizeable investments at the end of the cycle. Requesting this August Body, therefore, for a thorough review of the above-said questioned Tax Ordinance be discussed and deliberated upon, lest the Province will be unnecessarily exposed to possible "illegal exaction" lawsuit, or the like.
